

Cadence Senior Living Adds New VP of Operations

Scottsdale, Ariz. – November 8, 2017. Cadence Senior Living announced that Jacqueline Smith has joined its management team as Vice President of Operations. Jacqueline brings over 20 years of experience in senior living operations and joins an operations management team that already includes stalwarts Tracy Colburn (formerly of Atria) and Co-Founder Eric Gruber.

Prior to joining Cadence, Jacqueline was the Vice President of Operations for Stonecrest Senior Living Management where she was responsible for all of Stonecrest's portfolio operations. Jacqueline also held operational roles at Integral Senior Living, Merrill Gardens, Life Care Services and Capital Senior Living.

"We are truly fortunate to be able to add Jacqueline to our team," said Rob Leinbach, Principal at Cadence Senior Living. "She brings tremendous energy and experience to Cadence and will play an integral role in our capabilities to expand."

"With Jacqueline, Tracy and Allyson Nathan, I would put our operations team up against any in the country," added Eric Gruber. "We are very excited about the organization we are putting together here at Cadence." Jacqueline and Tracy will be principally responsible for implementing Cadence's "rhythm of life" into its growing portfolio of communities.

For more information about Cadence, please contact info@cadencesl.com.

About Cadence Senior Living:

Cadence is an owner, operator and developer of senior living communities based in Scottsdale, Arizona. Cadence executives have over 100 years of real estate, senior housing development and senior housing management experience. Cadence emphasizes the importance of quality care and creates comfortable, vibrant communities that offer residents exceptional independent living, assisted living and memory care lifestyle options, proving that the "rhythm of life" is ever present.

www.cadencesl.com