

Treva Whalen Adds to Cadence Living's Expanding Team on West Coast

Scottsdale, AZ. Nov. 1 2018 — We are pleased to announce that Treva Whalen has joined the Cadence corporate team as Director of Operations – West Region. Treva has over 15 years of senior housing operations experience. Treva will join Susie Stangroom's regional management team with oversight of Cadence's growing portfolio in California and Washington. Prior to joining Cadence, Treva was a Regional Director of Operations for Pacifica Companies. Treva has also held multiple roles with Sunrise Senior Living, Westmont Living and Brookdale, including several Executive Director positions. "We are very focused on our operations team in California and believe with Susie and Treva that we have excellent leadership at the top of the region," stated Cadence Principal Eric Gruber.

Cadence Living is currently developing, owns and/or operates communities in California, Arizona and Colorado and is expanding its footprint throughout the south and west. What sets Cadence apart is the company's devoted approach to creating healthy, vibrant communities that offer residents exceptional independent living, assisted living and memory care lifestyle options. The name "Cadence" underlines the company's personal philosophy that each community should aspire, create and respond to life's natural rhythms to enliven and enrich the experience of residents. For more information on Cadence Living, visit CadenceSL.com.